

Product Data Sheet

TECHFORM Sakor GW

Description:

Techform Sakor GW is a measure for maintenance for temporary protection against corrosion of molds, tools and metal parts of machines and devices. Contains modified refined oils, waxes, antioxidants and anti-corrosion additives.

Advantages:

- Easy to use. Thanks to the introduction the orange marker has a protected surface.
- Oil and wax protective coating.
- Repels water.

The fields of application:

- Temporary protection of injection molds and other processing tools during storage and transport.
- Machine and equipment maintenance.
- Protection of steel structures.
- Maintenance of mold working surfaces during downtime and repairs.

Properties:

- Form: aerosol, yellow
- Odour: characteristic
- Density: 0,85 g/cm<sup>3</sup>
- (In)flammability: inflammable.
- Solubility: in solvents, not in water.

Packaging:

- aerosol 400 ml, 20 pc. in carton

How to use:

In order to obtain a uniform layer, apply the aerosol to clean and a degreased surface, spraying it from a distance of 25 to 30 cm. The operations can be repeated after evaporation of the solvent from the previously applied layer.

Guidance for users:

The product contains flammable liquids and gases. During application, the room should be well ventilated. Do not spray an open flame. Protect against ignition source. Keep away from children. Store at temperatures below 50°C, away from sources of heat and direct sunlight. Before use, read the product safety data sheet.

Warning

The product is intended for industrial use only. The information contained in the card presents the current state of knowledge and experience. The information provided can not be used as a substitute for the necessary tests, which alone can ensure the user that this product for it is purposes. It is the user who is responsible for compliance with applicable legal provisions. Please, make sure that the user in possession of the latest version of the PDS. Techplast provides all additional information.